Betty Ferguson Foundation B.A.B.E Reads “A Free Life”

Betty Ferguson Foundation (BFF) book club, charmingly called B.A.B.E. (Books And Better Education), is a small group atmosphere designed to stimulate thought, share ideas and learn something new. Frequently the group will go to lunch after their morning discussion, and everyone is welcome to join! Mags Kelly, book club facilitator extraordinaire, brings these B.A.B.E.'s together once a month to review that month's book club selection. The selections can be viewed on their website in advance.

BFF is a Non-Profit organization whose mission is “To Train, Develop and Empower Women and Youth to be a Vital Force in Society.” They have mastered several ways of doing this. One is this monthly Books And Better Education group that meets on the 2nd Saturday of each month at 10:30 am here in Valencia at Barnes & Noble.

The selection for August is: “A Free Life” From Ha Jin, the widely-acclaimed, award-winning author of Waiting and War Trash, comes a novel that takes his fiction to a new setting: 1990s America. We follow the Wu family — father Nan, mother Pingping, and son Taotao — as they fully sever their ties with China in the aftermath of the 1989 Tiananmen Square massacre and begin a new, free life in the United States.

No RSVP is required. All book enthusiasts are welcome! Should you have any questions about B.A.B.E or any other BFF event, please call (661) 702-8712. BFF is located in the Valencia Industrial Center @ 25510 W. Avenue Stanford, Suite # 104. Valencia, CA 91355. Visit them on the web @ www.BettyFerguson.org or become a fan on Facebook too!
